

Formalize Communication Pathways Make Data Actionable for Team Huddles

Daily. All team members must be engaged for the team to be effective

Population Health Reports. Identify and delegate team roles and using data

Assess Population Health Status. Stratify risks of empanelled pa

- Top preventive health and condition management needs; match to staff resources
- High risk, high volume patients; a determinant of practice initiatives and resource

Define Roles & Expectations. Who does what?

- Delegate/assign responsibility for specific tasks in Population Health management roles
- Care Management / Coordination Issues. Data becomes a driver of condition and Staffing Resources. Set panel management goals with your team

- Begin proactive outreach using data reports based on patient and provider Needs/Issues/Concerns

Anticipate and plan for contingencies.

- Continually assess volume of care and resources required by a population or population subset
- Analyze performance and respective outcomes of care delivery. Use a feedback loop. Make appropriate process changes based on identified gaps in patient

Communicate among team members throughout the day - At Point of Care